IN The Classroom

Kocher: We have been learning about the caterpillar's life and how air, wind and even our breath can move things. We will be starting our Easter party preparations by making Easter baskets (everyone brought their jug in already!!!!) and by dyeing our Easter Eggs - REMEMBER TO BRING 6 BOILED EGGS by April 4th:) Easter Parties are April 6th and 7th at 10:00 - party snack reminders are in your preschooler's zipper pouch of their backpack. NO SCHOOL APRIL 10-17 HAVE A HAPPY EASTER.

FIFTH GRADE MEMORY - April 7th Bible verses Act 2:38-39 and John 3:5

Keown: It was good meeting and getting to talk with each of you during parent/teacher conferences last week. We had 100% attendance...great job! Today, we had a wonderful time watching our volcanoes "erupt". (an annual event in our classroom for the letter V.) You may pick up your child's volcano anytime...they are drying (again!) outside our classroom. We will include the directions for "erupting", as they can be used over and over again. Have fun!! Easter parties will be next Thursday(6th) for PM and Friday(7th) for AM.

LaBruyere: Congratulations to our Sight Word Champions! We are out of napkins for snack again. If anyone could send some, I would appreciate it!

Sherrill: We are finishing our unit on counting coins in math. Religion has us focus on stories that show how Jesus treated and accepted all people. Nouns and verbs have captured our attention in Language. Many parents have been working on the class display for the auction and it isn't too late to donate items or cash. Remember we have school all day next Friday.

Dischbein: We are finishing up money and learning how to measure with our rulers. We learning what a noun and verb are and identifying them in our sentence work. Following directions seem to be tricky lately, we are really trying to work on that!

Samples: Please return your fluency packet by tomorrow.

Thanks!

Bieser: Please send in a few pencils and glue sticks, our extra classroom supply are out and many children don't have any in their extra supplies either. Please return your picture packets tomorrow.

Holtz and Thomas: The kiddos really enjoyed their trip to St. Paul High School this week! Book report slideshows are due tomorrow!

Fink: Seventh graders finished "Watsons Go to Birmingham" and were baffled at all of the symbolism. I just love to hear kids say, "That makes sense!" Indefinite pronouns and conjugating verbs are such fun!

Chandler: Science Fair is 1 WEEK from today!! Keep working hard...I see the light at the end of the tunnel!:)

Pinkley: Quiz on Pax today. In Tech class: Pixel art, Shortcut animation, Stop motion animation, Finishing up QR codes for Science Fair, Photo Contest due April 4th- Category Spring Colors. Welcome back 8th grade!

The Roaring Twenties... And All That Jazz

Don't forget to get your First Choice and Krekeler Ticket for the auction. Available in the school office. Also, be sure to turn in your dinner reservations to save your seat for this exciting event.

Candy Needed

We need individually wrapped candy for the Easter Egg Hunt on April 15th. Just turn into the office.

Save the date: April 27th 7pm
