Achievement Tests April 24-28

Achievement test time is fast approaching. We will return from break to a short week and the following week April 24-28 is achievement test week. Please remember your child needs to get plenty of rest, eat a breakfast full of protein, and please arrive at school on time. It is also important that you explain to your child to do his/her best. We also need donations of #2 wooden yellow pencils with large pink erasers. Thank you for all you do...Amy Eaves

Jr. High Youth Group

Please stay afterschool tomorrow to help stuff eggs for the Easter Egg Hunt. If we have plenty of people, it should only take 30 minutes.

Save the date: April 27th 7pm

We will recognize Soccer, Volleyball, Basketball, Cheerleading, and Academic teams. Last photo opportunity for teams and desserts.

IN The Classroom

Kocher: What great Easter parties we had in preschool!! Thank you all so much for bringing snacks and for helping with the Easter Egg hunt - we could not do it without you:) School will resume on Tuesday, April 18th. We will start our theme of Woodland Animals and the Letter "Y". Our field trip to Cape Conservation Center is April 27th, please return your permission slips by April 20th. HAPPY EASTER to you and your family.

FIFTH GRADE MEMORY - April 21st - Confession

Keown: We are looking forward to having our Easter celebrations this week and Spring break next week. When we get back (on the 18th) be sure to watch for important info about our upcoming trip to the zoo. Happy Easter!!

LaBruyere: We are enjoying learning about Easter this week. We will have our spelling test over the ake family words on Friday.

Sherrill: We are ready to prepare for and celebrate Easter! We finished our money unit but many did not master counting coins. Continue to practice counting change and learning math facts without using fingers!

Dischbein: Don't forget to check out the newsletter that will be sent home tomorrow, along with progress reports, please return a copy. My last day was today and Miss Dennis will be taking over tomorrow, it's been a blessing to be with your children this year, they are an amazing bunch!! Helpers/games are still need for the He Is Risen party when we return from break. Also just a heads up, the week of achievement test we eat a snack daily if anyone is interested to bring in a snack let me know. Blessings on your Easter.

Samples: Look for field trip letter and information to come home the week of the 17th.

Enjoy your Easter Break!!!

Bieser: Have a blessed Easter break! Enjoy the extra time off!!

Holtz and Thomas: Blessings on your break! He is risen!

Wodson: 5/6 We have begun Ancient Rome. Fascinating look at how they improved Greek culture and expanded everything. 7/8 Medieval Europe; Charlemagne, Vikings, Feudalism; LANGUAGE- lots of GRAMMAR!!! Deciphering the parts of speech and then the jobs the words have in a sentence, good job! Began "Detectives in Togas" to go along with Ancient Rome.

Fink: When we come back from break on Tuesday, the 7th & 8th graders will be presenting "The Way of the Cross". Come join us! Groups will leave every five minutes beginning at 9:00. Our party is that afternoon. Earlier this week I sent out a FastDirect with information. Have a Blessed Easter!

Chandler: We made it!!! Science Fair is TODAY!! I am so proud of our middle school students! They've put in a lot of hard work in the last few months! Please join us tonight for Science/Art/FACS/Photography/Book Fair from 6:00-7:30! Awards will be placed on boards! God's blessings on our upcoming Holy Week and Easter Sunday!

Pinkley: Blessings on your Easter Break!

The Roaring Twenties... And All That Jazz

Reminder: The auction committee is asking each St. Paul family to either sell or purchase a First Choice Auction Raffle ticket. Tickets are available in the school office. Tickets will also be available at the Science/Art/FACS/Photography/Book Fair on Thursday evening. Thank you in advance for your assistance with this.

Library

Our twenty-five cent sale was a big success. We made $230.00 to be used to buy new library books! Thanks for all the book donations.

Also, thank you to Mrs. Anne Moses, who is doing our library bulletin board.
