In The Classroom

Little Giants: This week, we have learned about the letter P. We have had fun making penguins, fingerprint pigs, and paper pizzas. The February 2 Early Out sign-up sheet is posted outside of the school office. Please remember to regularly wash naptime things during cold and flu season.

Keown: Finally! A full week of school! We have a PRONOUNCED PLETHORA of letter P items on our L/W shelf. We will wrap up the week by making PEPPERONI PIZZAS.

Our FF's this week are Harley Pyatt and Jersey Hall...great job, kiddos!! We look forward to next week when we will continue our MATH unit by playing "store". Thank you for all the snacks that have been sent in for our "purchases". Our L/W next week will be QUITE challenging...Q!

Kocher: We are learning letter "P" this week, so I brought in a hot air popcorn popper and only about 3 kids knew what it was:) We are discovering the Alphabet for the next two weeks and letters are everywhere in our world. Pizzas and Pigs in a blanket will be on our menu for Preschool!!! Next week is letter "Q". REMEMBER to be here on February 3rd to enroll your preschooler for next year.

FIFTH GRADE MEMORY: Jan 26 - The Second Article of the Apostles' Creed.

LaBruyere: We are learning about hibernation this week. We are getting excited about the 100th day of school! Please help your child complete their homework and return it on Wednesday.

Dischbein: Our 100th Day of school is next Wednesday; don't forget your 100 things....keep it a secret. We are having fun learning about hibernation and measurement this week.

Sherrill: We are using iPads in the classroom and it would be helpful if each child had their own headphones or ear buds. Thanks, we could use these as soon as possible. Next week Wednesday is our 100th Day of School so watch for more information for a fun project. Our "Guess Who" baby picture display shows how beautiful and unique God made each student.

Begley: Your child's Biography Project Assignment Organizer has been sent home, We began choosing biography books this week. Please help your child make a final decision as to whom the project will cover. Next Wednesday is our 100th day of school! We plan to celebrate!

Fink: Praise God with my family and I at the birth of our grandson, Thomas, born to Brittany and TJ! Big cousins, Hanna and Molly, are so excited! Eighth graders have Baptism first and second for Memory on Wednesday. Both the 7th and 8th graders have been working on the hymn study of "How Firm a Foundation Ye Saints of the Lord." Fifth through eighth graders are doing new projects in Art. Be looking for them in the hallways.

Chandler: 8th Grade- If you signed up for the practice ACT at SPLHS on Saturday, please be there by 7:30! A list of things to/not to bring will come home today!

Pinkley: If you are absent please check Google Classroom for assignments, past, present and future. Due dates are there too. Please check the lost and found in Computer Lab for headphones and "mice".

Eaves: language: vocab & spelling test tomorrow over ch. 11. We are still reading The Fighting Ground and working on the packet for the book.

Kurtz: The 5-8 show on February 16 has been POSTPONED...(we are not ready)(and I have a conflict with the date). :) Stay tuned... I'll keep you posted.

A Mexican Fiesta! Come and Celebrate Cinco de Mayo at...

St. Paul Lutheran School Benefit Dinner and Auction.

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice." Philippians 4:4

They say it takes a village and that sentiment certainly applies at St. Paul. Unlike public schools, we do not receive state or federal funds. Instead, we must rely on tuition, the generous support of the St. Paul Lutheran Church congregation and our fundraisers to cover the costs of educating our children. St. Paul's annual benefit auction and dinner is the school's largest fundraiser. This event is made possible by dedicated volunteers from within our St. Paul family: parents, grandparents, staff, friends and family. When we, as a school and church family, come together in support of this event, great things happen. We are asking each member of our school/church family to prayerfully consider how he/she will each lend a hand to this year's auction. Our auction is on Saturday, May 5, and the theme is Mexican Fiesta! Celebrate Cinco de Mayo at St. Paul Lutheran School Benefit Dinner and Auction.

Please join us as we make this event a profitable fundraiser for St. Paul Lutheran School.
